

DS700 Solid State Drive

DATO SSD Warranty Policy

We had registered "Datotek International Co., Ltd." as DATO.

DATO SSD has high-performance, reliability and 100% guarantees your data integrity. DATO SSD are been developing with the newest techniques, and pass stress testing before we start production, Toughly and widely compatibility testing by the latest testing equipment, especially design for mobile.

The warranty will not be valid if the product warranty seals have been altered or removed. If the product fails under normal and proper use with the warranty period, DATO will replace the faulty product within the same or upgrade product.

Warranty Limitations:

1. There is damage under improper operation.
2. Damage caused by using under abnormal conditions.
3. Damage caused by physical impact, misuse, excessive or insufficient electrical supply, insufficient packaged or unintentional broken.
4. There is damage from improper installation.
5. The serial number of the product has been missing or broken.

Under any circumstances, DATO is not liable for damage or loss of property or equipment, expense or inconvenience caused by service interruptions due to direct or special damages.

DATO's maximum liability is limited to the price you have paid for this product. SSD, directly or special relationship liability reasons arising from damage, damage to property, equipment or second-hand resale interruption arising out of warranty and expenses, etc. Will not limited in any case.